Libby Ranee Barnes Burress

Libby Ranee Barnes Burress, 46, of Evansville, Indiana, passed away at home surrounded by her family on Wednesday, June 24, 2009. She was born September 18, 1962, in Evansville.

Libby is survived by her husband, Dr. Kent Burress; two children, Olivia and Kenneth; mother, Wanda Barnes; brother, Jeffry (Janna) Barnes; and two nieces, Maggie and Hannah Barnes.

She was preceded in death by her father, Sherrill Barnes, in 2001.

Libby graduated from Central High School in 1980. She was a legal secretary for many years with Attorney Charles Spaetti and a receptionist for Koleszar Woodruff Advertising Agency. Libby was presently a stay-at-home Mom, being very active with her children. Her hobbies included crossword puzzles, bowling, photography and collecting Longaberger baskets.

She and Kent were married August 29, 1987. They were members of McCutchanville United Methodist Church.

The family would like to thank the many friends and family for their prayers, meals, love and support.

Services will be Saturday, June 27, 2009, at 11 a.m. at McCutchanville United Methodist Church, 9505 Petersburg Rd. Friends may visit at Browning Funeral Home, 738 Diamond Avenue, on Friday, June 26, 2009, from 2 to 8 p.m. and from 10 a.m. to service time at the church on Saturday.

Memorial contributions may be made in Libby's name to McCutchanville Community Church, Weekday Christian Education or The Vanderburgh County 4-H Center.

Also, special thanks to her life long friend, Nancy Schultheis and Dr. Edward Fox, St. Mary's Medical Center and VNA Hospice.
